

Pupil Privacy Notice

You have a legal right to be informed about how our school uses any personal information that we hold about your child. To comply with this, we provide a 'privacy notice' to you where we are processing your personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about your child.

We, Odessa Infant School, Wellington Road, Forest Gate, London, E& 9BY are the 'data controller' for the purposes of data protection law.

Our data protection officer is Louise Malina (see 'Contact us' below).

The personal data we hold

We hold some personal information about your child to make sure we can help you learn and look after them at school.

For the same reasons, we get information about your child from some other places too – like other schools, the local council and the government.

This information includes:

- Contact details
- Test results
- Attendance records
- Characteristics, like your ethnic background or any special educational needs
- Any medical conditions they have
- Details of any behaviour issues or exclusions

Why we use this data

We use this data to help run the school, including to:

- Get in touch with parents when we need to
- Check how you're doing academically and work out whether you or your teachers need any extra help
- Track how well the school as a whole is performing
- Look after your wellbeing

Our legal basis for using this data

We will only collect and use your information when the law allows us to. Most often, we will use your information where:

- We need to comply with the law

- We need to use it to carry out a task in the public interest (in order to provide you with an education)

Sometimes, we may also use your personal information where:

- Your parents/carers have given us permission to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect your child's interests (or someone else's interest)

Where we have got permission to use your child's data, your parents/carers may withdraw this at any time. We will make this clear when we ask for permission, and explain how to go about withdrawing consent.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using your information overlap, and there may be several grounds which mean we can use your data.

Collecting this information

While in most cases your parents/carers, must provide the personal information we need to collect, there are some occasions when you can choose whether or not to provide the data.

We will always tell you if it's optional. If you must provide the data, we will explain what might happen if you don't.

How we store this data

We will keep personal information about you while your child is a pupil at our school. We may also keep it after you have left the school, where we are required to by law.

We have a record retention schedule] which sets out how long we must keep information about pupils.

If you require a copy of our retention schedule please contact the school.

.Data sharing

We do not share personal information about your child with anyone outside the school without permission from you their parents/carers, unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Where it is legally required, or necessary for another reason allowed under data protection law, we may share personal information about your child with:

- Our local authority – to meet our legal duties to share certain information with it, such as concerns about pupils' safety and exclusions
- The Department for Education (a government department)

National Pupil Database

We are required to provide information about your child to the Department for Education (a government department) as part of data collections such as the school census.

Some of this information is then stored in the National Pupil Database, which is managed by the Department for Education and provides evidence on how schools are performing. This, in turn, supports research.

The database is held electronically so it can easily be turned into statistics. The information it holds is collected securely from schools, local authorities, exam boards and others.

The Department for Education may share information from the database with other organisations which promote children's education or wellbeing in England. These organisations must agree to strict terms and conditions about how they will use your data.

You can find more information about this on the Department for Education's webpage on how it collects and shares research data.

You can also contact the Department for Education if you have any questions about the database.
