'MOTHER' BY DAVID HOCKNEY

We will be focusing on the portrait he created titled 'Mother'

Take some time to closely look at the portrait – pay attention to the detail and techniques he used.

He studied his subject very carefully and paid attention to detail when completing facial features and even to the pattern on the chair.

This is a portrait of his mum, if you were to choose someone to draw in your family who would it be?

Try drawing someone from your family – if they do not live with ask your adult for a photograph of them. Enjoy creating a portrait!
